OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 12 October 1967

25X1 1. [] Spoke with Mr. Jim Cline, Counsel, House Immigration and Naturalization Subcommittee, on the approval yesterday by Subcommittee No. 1 of the Rodino bill, H.R. 2138, who advised that the Subcommittee amendment involved a minor change of one technical word in the bill. Cline said he foresaw no problem in either full Committee or House approval of the measure and suggested that we be in touch with the Senate Committee when the House Committee report is out.

25X1 2. [] Spoke with Mr. Jack DeSipio, Civil Service Commission, in connection with the Commission's report on our revised legislative package. Mr. DeSipio asked that I confirm several specifics concerning percentiles and dates and said he expected that the Commission's report will be finished by him shortly.

25X1 3. [] Called Mr. Robert Mehaffey, Research Analyst for the House Committee on Un-American Activities, in connection with

25X1 []
Committee in satisfaction of this request.

25X1 4. []) Advised Ambassador Torbert that we
25X1 had been in touch with Senator Robert Kennedy's office concerning the [] matter which had been initially referred to the Department of State. Ambassador Torbert thanked us for advising him of this action.
